The Power Pups conditioning program builds fitness plans which involve strengthening, proprioception, and balance for healthy dogs. Is it safe at this time for the above mentioned dog to participate in these activities?

Are there any modifications that need to be made, precautions we should take, or movements/exercises this pet should avoid when participating in the conditioning program?

Please note that Power Pups Training and Fitness only provides conditioning and weight loss programs; we are NOT a rehabilitation program, and we do not diagnose or treat injuries, illness, or disease. All dogs who participate in the Canine Conditioning program after an injury or illness must have veterinary clearance, and when concerns are noted clients will be directed to seek appropriate care from their veterinarian, or other care provider.
